WonderWorks Orlando Offering Halloween Dinner Show and Family Fun Days

For the first time, WonderWorks is offering The Outta Control Spooktacular Magic Dinner Show

ORLANDO, Florida – (September 13, 2021) – Those who want a fun family experience this Halloween season won't want to miss "The Outta Control Spooktacular Magic Dinner Show" at WonderWorks Orlando. The long-running magic comedy dinner show will launch its first-ever Halloween-themed "spooktacular" beginning October 1, 2021, with shows running all month long. Shows will be offered nightly at 6 pm, with additional 8 pm show times on select nights. The show offers guests of all ages a fun way to celebrate the fun fall season.

"We are excited that Tony Brent will be producing and performing a new Halloween-themed show for the first time in the show's history," says Brian Wayne, general manager of WonderWorks Orlando. "It will be completely unique from our regular show, offering family-friendly, spooky content for the season."

The show's new characters, Jack the Trickster and Kevin, will present their frighteningly funny, family-friendly, monster-mashup of magic and comedy with a Halloween flair. During the show, guests will learn the story of the "Haunted Bell and Key." Objects will move on their own, the lights will flicker, and tables will even levitate inches away from their faces. Despite the spooky nature of the show, it's very family-friendly and appropriate for all ages.

The Halloween dinner show offers a one-of-a-kind entertainment experience, filled with food, fun and audience participation. The dinner includes unlimited fresh hand-tossed cheese and pepperoni pizza, salad, beer, wine, soda, and a themed Halloween dessert. Guests can purchase holiday-themed cupcakes at WonderWork's Works Eatery. Servers will be in costume, and guests are encouraged to do the same. In the Halloween spirit, WonderWorks will also be offering face painting before and after the show for a nominal fee (on Saturdays and other select evenings only).

"This will be a Halloween show you will not want to miss," added Wayne. "Tony Brent's new character 'Jack the Trickster' will lead the show into a spooktacular good time!"

Tickets for "The Outta Control Spooktacular Magic Dinner Show" can be purchased online. Reservations are required, as shows do sell out. Guests should arrive at least 30 minutes before the show's start time. Children three and under are free but will need a ticket to enter. Group sales are available for groups of 10 or more.
